

LOYOLA
CATHOLIC
SCHOOL

November 6, 2009

Dear Loyola High School Families,

There is a sense in the halls of Loyola this morning of jubilant exhaustion. Last night was the opening night of "Grease" and the stage was filled with students sporting slicked back hair and ponytails. A cast of 80 athletes, Knowledge Bowlers, and Key Clubbers speaks to what Loyola has to offer every student. A chance not only to excel in the classroom, but to defy the labels which are associated with these years in life. Not to be only a "jock" or a "brain" but to be a singer, or a dancer, or an actor. This is Loyola – a place where every student has a chance to shine and share in joy of 80 voices raised in a common song.

The Week Ahead

Friday, 11/6	Grease – 7:30 pm
Saturday 11/7	Wired to the Heart
Sunday 11/8	Grease – 2:00 & 7:30 pm
Tuesday 11/10	No A.M. Bus Service
Wednesday, 11/11	Parent-Teacher conferences 4:00 – 8:00 pm
Thursday 11/12	Parent-Teacher conferences 1:00 – 6:00 pm
Friday 11/13	NO SCHOOL NO SCHOOL

Blessings to all,

Bette Blaisdell, Principal
Loyola High School